

ACADEMY LEAD OUTREACH TEACHER

Duties:

Dallas Black Dance Theatre is seeking an outgoing and energetic dance teacher, for a full-time position, who communicates well with all age and skill levels. The Academy Lead Outreach Teacher will conduct DBDT's dance programming at DBDT's studios as well as schools and learning locations off-site. This individual must be highly dependable, have reliable transportation and possess a positive demeanor.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Teach academy classes and outreach classes as assigned.
- Promote physical and intellectual growth of students through dance.
- Maintain classroom records and reports.
- Maintain good rapport with students, parents and school.
- Assist in Academy registration and enrollment.
- Other duties as assigned by Academy Director or Outreach/Education Coordinator.

Qualifications:

Serious dance teaching experience for at least 2 years.

Dance Education or Dance degree required.

Please email resume, cover letter and salary requirements to admin@dbdt.com.

Reference "Academy Lead Outreach Teacher" in the subject.

No later than 5:00pm on July 24, 2015.

No phone calls please.